Description:

Brook Cottage is a delightful three bedroom traditional croft house located in the idyllic hamlet of Letterfean affording widespread views across Loch Duich towards the Five Sisters of Kintail.

Brook Cottage is an immaculately presented three bedroom property set within generous garden grounds located in a stunning waterside position boasting widespread loch and mountain views. The property retains much of its character and charm and offers ample living space together with well-appointed bedrooms.

The accommodation within is set out over two floors with the lower level comprising of a welcoming entrance vestibule, living room, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom. The staircase leads to a landing granting access to two further bedrooms and a box room providing space for storage. The property further benefits from UPVC double glazing, electric panel heating and two open fireplaces.

Externally the property sits within spacious garden grounds which extend up to the rear of the subjects and are mainly laid to lawn. There is a gravelled driveway to the side which provides space for parking with a gravelled pathway leading up to the entrance of the property. The garden also hosts a detached shed to the rear. From the garden grounds, extensive views over Loch Duich can be enjoyed together with the Five Sisters of Kintail peaks set in the distance. From the shore directly in front of the property, views towards Eilean Donan Castle can also be afforded.

Brook Cottage provides a fantastic opportunity to purchase a charming home and must be viewed to fully appreciate the beautiful setting and views on offer.
